SUBJECT: Identification of Accused

ALLEGATIONS:

1. The complainant alleges that on 17 January 2012, at 1405 hours, at approximately 1213 N. Austin Ave., the accused driving a silver unmarked Impala, [REDACTED] appeared behind them with flashing lights then pulled up beside his vehicle and for no apparent reason, begun screaming and shaking his weapon in the air at the complainant and his girlfriend [REDACTED]. The complainant alleges that they first noticed the Impala when it was inching into the intersection at Austin and Division where they were stopped at a red light.
2. The complainant further alleges that the accused driving the Impala pulled off Northbound on Austin and as the complainant's girlfriend who was driving pulled in behind the Impala the accused for no apparent reason jammed on his break abruptly stopping causing them to abruptly stop. The complainant alleges that the accused then pulled off and as they pulled off the accused again for no apparent reason jammed on his break abruptly stopping causing them to abruptly stop. To avoid an accident and further incident the complainant reported that they pulled over and let the accused driver go.

In order to identify the accused, the undersigned conducted a LEADS query of vehicle license plate M156719 and the LEADS Response revealed that the vehicle was a City of Chicago vehicle out of the 5219 South Wentworth Avenue Location. The undersigned contacted Motor Maintenance at 5219 S. Wentworth Ave to determine the unit to which this vehicle was assigned on 17 January 2012. The undersigned was informed that vehicle license plate [REDACTED] was vehicle number 3954 and was assigned to Unit 640 on that date. The undersigned then contacted Unit 640 and was informed that vehicle number was assigned to the Homicide, Gangs, and Sex Unit, The undersigned then contacted the Homicide, Gangs, and Sex unit regarding the vehicle and was informed that on 17 January 2012, this vehicle was assigned to Beat 5420. Based on this information, the undersigned obtained the attendance and Assignment Sheet for 17 January 2012, to determine the Department member that was assigned as Beat 5420 and the vehicle 3954. The undersigned found that Sergeant Bryan HOLY, star 2525, was Beat 5420 and was assigned to vehicle 3954. Sergeant Bryn HOLY was therefore identified as the accused in this investigation.
